LOCAL EVENTS SUPPORTING LOCAL CHARITIES

Founded in 1994 by Peter Teeley, former US Ambassador, and a group of Washington-area business and professional leaders, The Children's Charities Foundation has distributed more than $10.2 million to charities in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area including the District of Columbia; Montgomery and Prince George's Counties in Maryland; Fairfax and Arlington Counties in Virginia; and the City of Alexandria, Virginia.

There is an acute need to raise money for disadvantaged and at-risk youth of the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area. These funds are essential to maintain and support public and private programs and services for children in need. The Children's Charities Foundation funds non-profit organizations that support disadvantaged and at-risk children by strengthening their health and welfare, supporting strong and cohesive families, and assisting educational and recreational programs.

The Children's Charities Foundation is a tax-exempt 501 (c)(3) organization chartered and headquartered in the District of Columbia.
